MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Training

SUBJECT: Weekly Report #40
Assessment and Evaluation Staff
30 September - 6 October 1953I. NEW ACTIVITIES1. Office of the Chief

a. Discussion was held with Colonel Edwards on the general problem of maintaining contact with and control of professional members of the staff when overseas. He suggested periodic inspection trips and systematic reports. Colonel Edwards' attention was invited to the negative decision concerning [ ] use of Agency material for his thesis. He suggested that a memorandum giving our view on this case be prepared and transmitted to him personally. This memorandum is being prepared. Another matter discussed with Colonel Edwards was the procedures to be used in bringing people to Washington for their final processing, including Building 13 and the physical, prior to their entering on duty. It was agreed that as soon as A & E had a case of this kind, [ ] should be contacted and specific procedures worked out which could then be applied to all future instances. [ ] has been informed of this discussion.

b. Dr. Tietjen was contacted to discuss the problem of contacting and exercising professional control over his overseas representatives. His suggestions were in general consistent with those given by Colonel Edwards, but he included the suggestion that a Career Service Board for psychologists in the Agency be considered. The need for close coordination between psychologists in all parts of the Agency was discussed, including the possibility of having psychologists in the Medical Office on the A & E T/O. Dr. Tietjen took the position that, while a rotational arrangement might ultimately be worked out in the development of [ ] program, he felt that any psychologist hired should be their own staff member.

c. A meeting was held with [ ] acting as a committee to prepare a personnel evaluation report for use at the end of the provisional period. A general form and procedures were worked out, and [ ] office is attending to its arrangement and reproduction for presentation at the next Professional Selection Panel meeting.
